PIN THE JUNK ON THE HUNK

Aim of the game

Taken from the children's game 'Pin the Tail on the Donkey' this family favourite has been adapted for the adult mind! You think you know the male anatomy? How well will you know it blindfolded?.

What you need to play : You will need to have your own game kit for this.

How to play

- 🍷 Pin the male torso poster onto a wall or door.
- 🍷 Blindfold the person going first. Making sure there's no gaps for cheating!
- 🍷 Spin her around a couple of times for good measure.
- 🍷 Then give her a willy sticker and lead her to the picture.
- 🍷 The person that manages to stick the willy in the most appropriate place to where it should be located - wins!

MR AND MRS

Aim of the game

How well do the bride and groom know each other?

What you need to play : This will need some forward planning, you will need to get the groom involved, and he will need to have pre answered the questions. We recommend 15-20 questions.

How to play

- 🍷 The butler will read a question to the hen that has previously been asked to the groom.
- 🍷 If the hen gets it correct she will nominate a member of the group to drink a shot.
- 🍷 If she gets it wrong she will have to drink a shot - from a glass or from the butlers body!

FIND THE PLASTER GAME

Aim of the game

Who can find the plaster on the Butler, blindfolded in the quickest time.

What you need to play : Blindfold
& Stickers or Plasters

How to play

- 🍷 Place the blindfold over the first person's eyes and make sure there is no cheating!
- 🍷 Once blindfolded a different member of the group can either be really nice or a little bit naughty (probably naughty)
- 🍷 They will need to stick the sticker or plaster somewhere on the butler's body.
- 🍷 It's then the blindfolded person's job to try and find the sticker as fast as they can.
- 🍷 Get someone to time each person. The person who takes the longest will get a forfeit chosen by the butler.
