Men are traditionally not allowed at hen nights and rightfully so. But men are usually discussed, especially the groom. One of the best games to play is hen party games mr and mrs quizzes. This is a great way to see how well the bride actually knows her intended. However, the trick is to come up with some really obscure questions in order to stump the bride. This can be a lot of fun especially if she gets them all wrong. Make sure when you are playing this game to write down all her answers so the groom can be showed later on.

Getting everything ready for hen party games mr and mrs quizzes can take some time and effort. The hostess of the party should come up with questions for the bride pertaining to the groom. She should even enlist the help of the best man, groom's relatives and even the groom himself. The more obscure the question, the more likely the bride won't know the answer and that's where the fun comes in. If you are having a hard time coming up with suitable hen party games mr and mrs quiz questions, there are a few examples that you can use:
